Critical Perspectives on Transitions Into, Through and Beyond Higher Education

15 October 2018, Conference Hall, Jubilee Library, Brighton, BN1 1GE

This conference offers a critical interrogation of key moments of transition into through and beyond higher education.

Key themes covered on the day will include identities, pedagogies and academic practices; UK and international policy imperatives; elite spaces and identities in transition and re-thinking the role of the 'social' in moments of transition.

Keynote Speakers

Dr Sarah O'Shea

Associate Professor in Adult, Vocational and Higher Education, University of Wollongong

Dr Richard Waller

Associate Professor in the Sociology of Education, University of the West of England
