

	Heads of School invited to first online awareness raising workshop to cover regulatory compliance/risk around - Anti facilitation of tax evasion/CFA - Anti money laundering - Modern Slavery - Fraud - International sanctions All finance system users will receive notification of re-launched Authorising Expenditure e-learning, and will be encouraged to refresh their understanding by re-doing the course.	Heads of School will receive advance actions for the annual literacy and responsibilities self-assessment. Heads of School receive Pre-Year-End communication and text to send to staff with a reminder of their year-end responsibilities.	Heads of School will complete literacy and responsibilities self-assessment to inform future support (supported by Finance Business Partners).	Heads of School receive outcomes of the literacy and responsibilities self-assessment